no right to instruct... The Mayor being elected by a plurality of votes, the Board were of opinion that the better mode to receive instructions would be by a direct appeal to the people at the ballot-box, on Tuesday next, when they will be required to vote directly for the "old board" or "new board"

THEATRE-MR. NEAFTE.

Mr. NEAFIE commences an engagement at the Adelphi to-night, when the tragedy of Hamlet will be performed. It has been a good many years since Mr. NEAFIE was last in Nashville-nine years, he tells us. He was then regarded as an actor of great promise, and his subsequent career has more than fulfilled that promise. We cannot doubt that he and that his engagement at the theatre will be one of the most successful in its hostory.

CHOLENA AT SEA.—The records of cholera at sea are not confined to the papers on this side the Atlantic. The English papers notice the return of several emigrant vessels, obliged to put back by the devastations of the disease. The Guiding Star, a vessel of 2,000 tons burden, bound from Liverpool for the United States, put back after being nine days in the channel, with the Asiatic cholera, of a very fatal type, rife among her passengers. Thirteen of her passengers died, and a number of others were sick. Another ship, the Kossuth, bound from Liverpool, returned after being out fifteen days,-There had been fifty persons attacked, and out of these eighteen died. A number of the emigrants of an additional Chancery District, &c.; referred.

CIRCULAR.

To the Voters of Nashville:

The undersigned, some of the Directors of the Nashville and Chattanooga Railroad Compan having been informed that a question is to be submitted to the people of Nashville, whether the vote of the town in the approaching election for Directors of the Railroad Company, shall be given for the Old Board of Directors or against them, it is proper to say, in view of certain charges that have been made impunging the action of the Old Board, that they feel conscious of no fault, that they have no objection to have their conduct examined with the most rigid scrutiny, and that they have no desire to retain office except for the good of the road and of the town. They feel, however, that a vote of their fellow-citizens against them might imply censure. They do not feel willing to relinquish any of the character that they have heretofore sustained before the public, and are of course desirous of being upheld by the vote of the town. That the people of the town may know whom they vote against, if they vote against the President, the undersigned publish the names of the Directory. Whom the people are to vote for, if not for the present Directory does not appear. The undersigned are as yet ignorant who are to be presented against them; names have been mentioned in opposition, but none of those mentioned have agreed to serve, so far as the undersigned can learn. The main attacks have been made against V. K. STEVENSON, President. The undersigned have heretofore endorsed his conduct in the management of the road, and they again respectfully accord him their hearty approval. Mr. STEVENSON has nothing to conceal, and that every one who desires it may be informed of his proceedings, he will address his fellow-citizens, on Saturday night, at the Court House, in regard to some of the charges made against him, and will then and there be ready to answer any questions that may be propounded to him. These are the names of the Directory : V. K. Stevenson, Francis B. Fogg, Samuel D. Morgan, Alexander Allison, Joseph B. Knowles, John M. Bass, and Edwin H. Ewing, of Nashville; William Spence and Lewis Garner, of Rutherford; John T. Neal, and Jeremiah Cleveland, of Bedford; A. M. Rutledge, Thomas Powers, and Peter S. Decherd, of Franklin and Coffee counties, and Jas. A. Whiteside, of Hamilton. They are not paraded from ostentation, but to show at least that they have no fear of being known. The undersigned will all with pleasure answer any question that may be Ye wild and vicious youths, why will ye persist in dosing with the filthy nauseating compounds daily proffered, thereby impairing your appetite and digestion and destroying you mentally as well as physically, when you can be cured with a few doses of pleasant medicines?

Ye rakes of every age and condition, why will ye suffer and repine and drag out a miserable existence, unfitted for the enjoyment and even ordinary pursuits of life? You who are thus annoyed and wish to be restored to health and vigor by a treatment at once pleasant and effectual, should consult Dr. MORRIS. His success in chronic diseases has been greater than that of any other physician of his day, Many who have been for yours afflicted with disease or consequences resulting from excess have been restored to health and vigor under his really scientific treatment.

Should a personal interview be objectionable, state your disease in writting-enclose five dollars-address Dr. W. H. MORRIS, through the Post-Office, Nashville, Tenn., and a package of medicines, securely put up, will be sent privately and with dispatch, full directions therewith, and

Dr. Morse's Invigorating Elixir or Cordial. The day has passed when a great remedy could be cried down by pseudo-science. The attempt has been made to depreciate the merits of the Elixir or Cordial, but in vain Dr. Morse has a reputation too high in the scientific world of both hemispheres to be reached by the carpings of the invidious. Look at the attested cures wrought by this preparation. They comprehend dyspepsia, barrenness, every kind of disease peculiar to females, nervous maladies of all kinds, liver complaint, chronic afflictions of the stomach and bowels, general prostration, impotency, incipient para lysis, hypochondrinsis, head-nobe, constitution, and imp merable complaints which it is impossible to specify in an advertisement.
